

Quarterly Newsletter

Ready For a New Home

Friday is doing very well. His laminitis is gone and he is currently being ridden by his friend Brienne. The duo is shown here on a ride with neighbors Apache and Nikki.

Friday is well trained, calm, friendly, and intelligent. As you can see from the photo he is being ridden bareback with just a halter, by novice rider Brienne.

Friday currently needs hoof boots to be comfortable, but we expect his feet to continue to get healthier.

It's a New Year!

2008 marks the beginning of our fourth year. We've come a long way since we began. Donations are up and the number of our supporters has increased.

Most importantly we have saved 12 horses since our inception!

New Look and Format

We've changed our newsletter format, for easy printing and archiving. We hope you enjoy it!

Want to Help?

If you have marketing, fundraising, or other skills and would like to help, please contact us. Also, we are still searching for committed Board Members to help us grow and add new programs.

Trying to find a home for your horse?

For The Horse will post a photo(s) and information about your horse on our website. We will also act as the go-between so that your horse will be protected by our adoption agreement. For more information contact rescue@forthehorse.net

Thanks To Our Supporters 2007-2008

Tina Alameda, Katey Kimsey, Margaret Peterson, Paula Cook, Elise Chand, Northwest Veterinary Clinic, Rengen Ranch, Ailee Regal, The Browns in Stanwood, Grant Miller, Country Supply, Rob Steel, Jennene Denning, Christie DeLuca, The Seattle School District, Stacie Lorensen, Lucy Krakowiak, Jacquie Bristol, Tracy Bretz, Arleen Gibson, Tia & Andres Camacho, Diana Presnell, Microsoft, Mission Research, and everyone who's used our Care Code while shopping at Country Supply.

Don't forget to shop at Country Supply and use our Care Code – ForTheHorse

We accept donations via Pay Pal at rescue@forthehorse.net

