Our New Home!

For The Horse Equine Rescue now has a permanent home!

Founder and President, Maureen Tierney, purchased a 76 acre farm in Harned, Kentucky this September. Wild Dreams Farm will be FTH's permanent facility.

All the horses have been moved and have settled into their new home, where they will live out the rest of their days as a family.

We don't normally ask for donations, but getting the farm set up is a giant task. At the present time we only have about 5 acres fenced, along with some existing perimeter fence which is not complete.

Any donation for fencing would be gratefully appreciated. No amount is too small. The more we can get fenced the more horses we can help.

You can check out Wild Dreams Farm at www.wilddreamsfarm.com

Wishing you a Happy Holiday Season

Other Ways to Help

If you have marketing, fundraising, or other skills and would like to help, please contact us. Also, we are always searching for committed Board Members to help us grow and add new programs.

A Sincere Thank You to All Our Supporters

Over the past six years we have received support from too many people and companies to list here. We are extremely thankful for all the donations that have allowed us to help horses. We are extra thankful for those donations made during this economic downturn.

We accept donations via PayPal at rescue@forthehorse.net

Trying to find a home for your horse?

For The Horse will post a photo(s) and information about your horse on our website. We will also act as the go-between so that your horse will be protected by our adoption agreement. For more information contact rescue@forthehorse.net
